CHANGED HIS MIND.

Friend John's Vision Grows Clear on the Water Question.

"It is surprising," said the Man With a Calculating Eye today, "how some people will stumble over a small argument and vote against a particular proposition which, on general principles, they heartily indorse."

"Now, what has started you off on that tangent?" inquired a bystander. "Was your encounter with the Cheerful Idiot too much for you? The next thing we know you will be giving us a lecture on the vanities of life."

The Man, etc., smiled a little sadly as though his most recent experience had been a little trying on his nerves, twisted his mustache a minute or two and then said:

"No, little things like that don't disturb me. But I met a good friend of mine last evening who I know is favorable to the city owning its own water-works and I said to him: 'Well, John, what do you think of the water bonds?'"

"I was surprised to hear him reply: 'Well, I don't know.'"

"I then asked him, 'Why don't you know?'"

"Well," he replied, "I just don't know about this idea of the city developing water by digging a trench in the ground up there at the Hot Springs. I don't know about that. It may be all right and then it may be all wrong."

"Then John shook his head mournfully. Before he moved away I took his hand, which I noticed was cold and Scrofula, a Vile Inheritance.

Scrofula is the most obstinate of blood troubles, and is often the result of an inherited taint in the blood. S. S. S. is the only remedy which goes deep enough to reach Scrofula; it forces out every trace of the disease, and cures the worst cases.

My son, Charlie, was afflicted from infancy with Scrofula, and he suffered so that it was impossible to dress him for three years. His head and body were a mass of sores, and his eyesight also became affected. No treatment was spared that we thought would relieve him, but he grew worse until his condition was indeed pitiable. I had almost despaired of his ever being cured, when by the advice of a friend we gave him S. S. S. (Swift's Specific). A decided improvement was the result, and after he had taken a dozen bottles, no one who knew of his former dreadful condition would have recognized him. All the sores on his body have healed, his skin is perfectly clear and smooth, and he has been restored to perfect health.

For real blood troubles it is a waste of time to expect a cure from the doctors. Blood diseases are beyond their skill. Swift's Specific.

reaches all deep-seated cases which other remedies have no effect upon. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed purely vegetable, and contains no potash, mercury, or other mineral.

Dreadful Eruptions on Her Skin and Body

Great Suffering Relieved by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"My little daughter suffered terribly with eruptions on the skin and body which looked as though blistered. I have been giving her Hood's Sarsaparilla and she has taken several bottles and is now almost entirely cured. We were told she would need a change of climate, but Hood's Sarsaparilla has made it unnecessary." J. T. FREEMAN, Ft. Wingate, N. M.

"I have been suffering with sores on my face. I was unable to sleep and had no appetite. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and after I had used two bottles I felt like a different man. The sores disappeared, my appetite increased and I can now sleep soundly." HENRY REICHNER, Georgetown, New Mexico.

nerveless and entirely different from its usual tone and tenor and said:

"My dear friend: Don't worry on that score. You can't afford to vote against the bonds for that reason. The city is not confined to its proposition to develop water. It has the other alternative of taking water out of the river, just as the Agua Pura company does, or it can go a few miles further up and use the cool, sparkling water of the Trout Springs, as pure a nectar as was ever used by the gods. You forget that the city has control of the Trout Springs and can buy them outright at any time within the year."

"My speech, which was rather long, I admit, had a wonderful effect on my friend John. He straightened upright, his eyes sparkled and his voice had an earnest ring as he fairly shouted:

"I forgot all about that. I give you my word I'll vote for the bonds."

What Water Does.

As an evidence of what the assurance of a plentiful and permanent water supply will do for one part of a city as against another, Eighth street in Las Vegas is cited. A water main of the Agua Pura company runs up the alley between Seventh and Eighth streets and persons locating on the north end of those thoroughfares get a first chance at the water. For this reason residence lots are in demand there and sell as high as $300 each. One has only to travel four or five blocks further east where the water supply is less regular and where water pipes are a scarce article and residence lots sell for no more than half the amount and are hardly saleable at that. The location of the latter is as convenient and as desirable, many people argue, as that on Seventh and Eighth streets. Water makes all the difference.

Rented an Armory.

The three guards of this city are at last to have a home and an abiding place. The territory of New Mexico through the adjutant general, has leased Malibon's ball facing Fountain square and has given this to the guardsmen for use as an armory. The front part will be fitted up as a reading and writing room, leaving a large hall to the rear as a drill room. It is understood that the local guardsmen will proceed without delay to occupy and fix up their new quarters. They have been occupying the council chamber in the city hall but these quarters are not commodious and sometimes interfere with other meetings. In addition, when the boys wished to drill, they were compelled to seek the open air, regardless of climatic conditions. Having now secured an armory, they can drill as often as they please and whenever they please.

An American Railroad in China.

Moneyed men from the United States have secured a franchise for building a railroad from Hong Kong to Han Kow, China, a distance of nearly 700 miles. While railroads are necessary to a nation's prosperity, health is still more necessary. A sick man can't make money if there are a thousand railroads. One of the reasons why America is so progressive is the fact that in every drug store is sold Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, that celebrated tonic for the weak, appetizer for the dyspeptic, and sedative for the nervous. It is taken with great success by thousands of men and women who are run down, pale and weak. It increases the weight and the gain is permanent and substantial.
